

BUILDING FULL OF CANNED FRUIT
BURNS TUESDAY

Fifty-six thousand cases of applesauce and canned apple juice were stored in the building which burned Tuesday morning when their storage quarters in the former Totem Pole summer theater on the Pine Grove Rd. were destroyed.

Firemen blamed the flames on an oil heater which exploded during the absence of a caretaker.

The Fayetteville Fire Co. sent two pieces of equipment to the scene and the Arendtsville Fire Co. sped two trucks to the blaze. They were there four hours.

Water Is Problem
Water was pumped from the nearest source of supply, a creek at Dead Woman's Hollow, a quarter mile from the fire.

Ice on the hose lines, subfreezing temperatures and lack of water hampered the fire fighters.

The alarm was sounded from Kimples Tavern on the Lincoln Highway. Passing motorists observed smoke at the building located between Caledonia Park and Pine Grove Furnace. The site is 11 miles northeast of Caledonia Park.

The big cement block building originally served as a store and service station, firemen said. For a summer or two it was used as a recreation hall. Some years ago it was enlarged as first quarters for the Totem Pole Theater. It was used for several summer seasons. The Totem Pole later moved its stage to the present theater on the Lincoln Highway at Caledonia.

Leased By Canner
Fire Chief Jack Goetz of the Fayetteville Volunteers said the building is leased to the Duffy-Mott Co., Aspers.

Fifty-six thousand cases of applesauce and apple juice was stored in the building. Each case contained 24 cans.

Goetz said more than two thirds of the stock was lost in the blaze.

He said a caretaker who lives in a trailer at the building's site was away from home Monday night. The kerosene heater apparently exploded, spraying burning fuel in a wide radius. Goetz said the structure was insured.

Navy Has Torpedoes That Seek Out Targets By Sound

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy announced today that two new lightweight torpedoes — designed to seek out their targets by following sounds — have been delivered to the fleet.

Known as the Mark 32 and the Mark 43, the torpedoes are the first of a new series developed by the Navy in its stepped-up concentration on antisubmarine warfare.

The Mark 43 can be launched from either surface ships or aircraft. The Mark 32 is designed for ship launching only.

The Navy said the Mark 43 weighs only about an eighth as much as aerial torpedoes used in World War II. It is about 8 feet long and 10 inches in diameter.

Rear Adm. F. S. Withington, chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, said the Mark 43 is "actually a submersible guided missile and is capable of searching to great depths for enemy targets." It is propelled by an electric motor powered by a battery.

The Mark 43 was designed and developed by the Clevite Corp., Cleveland, Ohio. The same firm is manufacturing the torpedoes for the Navy.

The Mark 32 is one of the simplest antisubmarine weapons the Navy has developed. It can be tossed overboard from an open launcher. As soon as the torpedo hits the water its built-in power plants take over and carry it at high speed to its target.

The Mark 32 was developed by the General Electric Co. and the Philco Corp. in cooperation with the Bureau of Ordnance. It is produced by Philco and the naval ordnance plant in Forest Park, Ill.

J. M. SHEADS IS
NEW PRESIDENT OF HISTORIANS

J. Melchoir Sheads, American history teacher at the Gettysburg High School, was elected president of the Adams County Historical Society at the annual organization meeting of the society Tuesday evening at the court house. He succeeds Dr. W. E. Tilberg, who has been president for the last two years.

Associate Judge Clarence Deardorff of McKnightstown was elected vice president to succeed Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver. Miss Margaret McMillan was re-elected secretary and Fred G. Troxell was named treasurer for another year. The election followed presentation of the nominating committee report by William C. Darrah.

The society members discussed steps to be taken to provide care for neglected cemeteries in the county and were told that additional museum space for their steadily growing collection of articles of historical interest is becoming ever a more pressing need.

Museum Collection Grows
Tuesday evening's program consisted of two papers recently written as a junior history project at the high school by Sarah Snyder and Nancy Elker. Miss Snyder's paper was on the Spangler farms at the time of the battle while the Elker paper on the Sherry farm was read by Mrs. Francis Welkert.

In the business session that preceded the election, President Tilberg announced he has appointed Dr. Frederick Tilberg, Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh and J. M. Sheads to a special committee to represent the society in community efforts to have the old dormitory at the Lutheran Theological Seminary preserved.

Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, chairman of the museum committee, said the museum now contains 3,485 catalogued items and hundreds of others, including the Dr. Henry Stewart collection, that have been classified but not catalogued. He said that while space is an increasingly acute problem, the society welcomes new acquisitions and adds to its collection monthly.

The society discussed briefly the possibility of getting more space in the court house basement.

Discuss Cemetery Care
Dr. Fortenbaugh displayed two large, framed photographs which he had just received from Mrs. John A. Mumper for the society. One was a photo of the group attending a GAR turkey dinner here in 1914 and the other was a photo of Company M, 5th Pa. Volunteers, Gettysburg's unit in the Spanish American War.

Ike Favors Red
Ink Spending
Over Tax Hike

By MARVIN LARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he would prefer a reasonable amount of deficit spending this year to a tax increase.

The President, at his first news conference in 2 1/2 months, said he believes some red ink spending would be the only answer under present circumstances if it came to a choice between that and a tax increase in order to handle the proposed new federal budget.

In that connection, Eisenhower noted that his economic advisers are predicting an upturn from the current business recession.

Discusses Budget
Eisenhower was discussing the $73,900,000,000 budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 which he sent to Congress Monday.

On paper, it is narrowly in balance with a forecast of a surplus of half a billion dollars based on anticipated tax revenues.

A 400-million-dollar deficit now is in prospect for the current fiscal year, because tax collections have fallen with the decline in business prosperity while spending for defense has gone up.

This was Eisenhower's first news conference since Oct. 30. He suffered a minor stroke on Nov. 25.

In reply to questions about his health at this time, he said with a smile that he is feeling very good and would like to get out on the golf course for a couple hours if only there were some sun.

Ruddy Complexion
His face was ruddy as of old, and the consensus of the 270 newsmen was that he handled himself (Continued on Page 2)

FIRST ACCIDENT
ON NEW BYPASS

Slush on the highways Monday afternoon at 12:50 o'clock led to the first auto accident on the new York Springs bypass, state police reported today.

According to the officers, George M. Fisher, 71, Ontario, Canada, was driving south, one-fourth mile north of York Springs, when he sought to pass another south-bound car.

Fisher's auto skidded on the slush and turned west, running off the highway onto the berm, then it veered east, crossed the two lanes for southbound traffic, crossed the dividing plot between the north and southbound lanes of the highway, crossed the two north-bound lanes and finally crashed into a sewer abutment.

Damage was estimated at $1,200 to the car. Fisher, removed by a passing motorist to the office of Dr. William Flickinger in York Springs, was treated for a laceration of the nose.

FAMILY OF 7 IS MADE HOMELESS
BY NIGHT BLAZE

The home of Clarence M. Ford, unemployed New Oxford R. 2 construction worker, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night at 10 o'clock.

With the house gutted by the blaze, Ford said today the structure was "completely unrepairable."

The blaze apparently started in a downstairs bathroom, spread through the walls into the second floor and on into the attic, gutting the house and burning most of the roof.

Originally a log house, the structure was said to have been one of the first built in that section near, Hunterstown. A stone wall had been added at a later date and then a frame part added still later. About ten years ago the house had been remodeled again and more recently the interior was remodeled.

Save Some Furniture
Ford, his wife and their five children were made homeless by the blaze. Mr. and Mrs. Ford spent the night with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ford, New Oxford R. 2, and the five children spent the night with Mrs. Ford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Z. Miller, New Oxford R. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ford had been away during the earlier part of the evening, leaving the children with Mrs. Ford's parents, who reside near the home that burned. They returned to Mrs. Ford's parents' home and spent a short time there before returning with the children.

Upon their arrival, about 10 o'clock, they saw fire through windows as they approached along the lane to the house, and rushing into the home found that the rear of the downstairs and parts of the upstairs were afire. Mr. Ford called New Oxford and Gettysburg firemen, and then started carrying furnishings from the front of the house. He was able to save a few pieces along the front of the front room before the smoke and fire drove him from the structure.

Lost Most Of Clothing
New Oxford firemen set up a portable pump at a farm pond 300 feet from the house and attached that pump to a pumper to throw water on the blaze. Gettysburg firemen used a portable pump at the pond to keep booster tanks of the two Mack trucks filled with water and then used water from the booster lines to combat the fire.

The Ford family lost most of their clothing — other than what they were wearing at the time they arrived home, as the blaze enveloped the second floor.

The house was partially covered by insurance, but the furnishings were uninsured, Ford said today.

The Ford children include Linda, aged six months; Fred, 2; Nancy, 5; Shirley, 8, and Glenn, 10, and the latter two students at Gettysburg schools.

The fire call was the first for Gettysburg since December 17.

Mr. Ford estimated his loss at "about $8,000" this afternoon, following a check on the damage. He said he tentatively plans to build a new home near the site of the burned one, and in the meantime the family is making arrangements to reside in an apartment at his father's home.

RESIGNS STATE JOB
Frank J. Slonaker, 329 York St., Adams County member of the Republican state committee, has resigned his position as an auditor in the Bureau of Disbursements in the state auditor general's department at Harrisburg, effective last Friday. There were reports in Republican circles today that Slonaker will be a candidate for Republican county chairman at the spring primary.

ASK HELP FOR FIRE VICTIMS

The Adams County Red Cross and New Oxford Fire Company today made appeals for clothing and bedding for the Clarence Ford family which lost its home in a fire near Hunterstown Tuesday night.

Bedclothing is particularly needed by the family, which lost all of its possessions in the blaze. The five children are staying with Mrs. Ford's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Ford are residing with their parents until they can find a home of their own.

All kinds of clothing are needed by the children and parents who have only what they were wearing when they arrived home to find their house ablaze.

Mr. Ford wears size 42 clothing, with a 17 1/2 inch neck; Mrs. Ford wears size 16 1/2 clothing. The boys sizes are 12 and 4; the girls sizes are 8, 6 and 1 year-old.

Those wishing to donate may leave articles at the Red Cross office, Baltimore St., Gettysburg, or telephone Gettysburg 132 and the Red Cross will arrange to pick up the articles, or clothing, furniture or other articles may be well. There was one instance, near the start of the 30-minute session, when Eisenhower appeared to "fluff" a word or two. But there was no more of that—and quite possibly there was less—than before the slight stroke which manifested itself by a temporary speech difficulty.

Eisenhower said he never gave any consideration to resigning after his latest illness. He touched off a round of laughter by adding that his doctors were assuring him a couple hours after the minor stroke—that as the President put it—there was no damage whatever to the intellectual faculties he has.

Will Obey Doctors
Turning serious, Eisenhower went on to say that if ever his doctors should tell him that he was unable to carry on the duties of the presidency, he would have no recourse except to resign.

Silk Worms Starved
In her paper on the Spangler farm at Culp's Hill and the Spangler farm west of the Emmitsburg Rd. and north of the Sherry farm, Miss Snyder pointed out that both were owned by the same family. She told of battle events connected with both properties and said the one Spangler farm near the Sherry farm was burned to flush out Confederate sharpshooters hiding there.

The Sherry farm paper detailed military action in that part of the field during the battle in which the Sherry house was hit many times and which resulted in the burning of the Sherry barn where Union prisoners perished. There was a reference, too, to the silk worm industry which had been operated profitably at the Sherry property for more than three decades before the Civil War. The worms starved at the time of the battle, the paper said.

There was a question period after the papers were read in which it was brought out that the Peach Orchard was part of the Sherry farm and that a canning factory stood there about the time of the battle. Sherry descendants are reported to possess today peaches canned there.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Build Bridge In Fast Time: A record for bridge-building in Adams County was established in the construction of a 65-foot two-span steel girder bridge on the road from the Norman J. King farm in 16 days, Louis Wagoner, clerk to the county commissioners, announced today.

From the day the location for the bridge was surveyed until it was thrown open to traffic was exactly 16 days.

Twenty tons of steel used in the bridge were hauled from Gettysburg to the site, a distance of 18 miles, and placed in position in 14 hours. The bridge contains sixteen girders.

The bridge is between Latimore and Reading townships and was paid for by the two townships, with the assistance of the commissioners. Frank McDermott, of near Orrtanna, was in charge of the construction of the bridge.

Marathon Dance Will Open Here: Ten couples have been entered in the Gettysburg marathon dance, which opens at 12:01 a.m. Monday in C. W. Epley's recreation center, York street. A cash prize will be awarded the winners.

The marathoners will be allowed two and one-half hours rest during the week, one hour the first and second day, one-half hour the third, fourth, fifth and sixth days. "Bud" Codori's Pennsylvania Ramblers will play the first three hours of the marathon dance and each night thereafter. Dancing will continue with amplified music during the day.

Local Chamber Secures Four Conventions For Gettysburg This Year: With four conventions definitely assured for Gettysburg this summer and two others whose executive committees will decide between Gettysburg and other convention sites, the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce Board of directors voted to devote considerable more time to this phase of business during the current year.

The four conventions already secured for Gettysburg this year with the number expected to attend, follow: Junior Order United American Mechanics, 400; Daughters of America, 500; Pennsylvania Dairy Mads, 300; Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association, 2,000. The Pennsylvania State Grange and the Memorial Craftsmen's Association of Pennsylvania are also considering Gettysburg as the site for their conventions.

Inventor who Spoke At College Sees Car Going 300 Miles On 1 Gallon: Many Gettysburgians including Gettysburg college faculty members, students and alumni of Gettysburg college are interested in the recent statement of Charles F. Kettering, vice president of General Motors corporation, visualizing an automobile of the future capable of traveling between 300 and 400 miles on a gallon of gasoline.

Mr. Kettering addressed the scientists' symposium here during the recent Centennial observance at Gettysburg college and was conceded to be one of the most interesting of 20 speakers.

Mr. Kettering visualized the automobile traveling more than 300 miles on one gallon of gasoline while addressing a group of auto manufacturers in New York.

"We are utilizing only about 4 or 5 per cent of the total efficiency of modern petroleum fuel in the automobile," he said. "We believe, in fact we are convinced, that there is enough energy in a gallon of gasoline to propel the ordinary sized automobile 300 or 400 miles."

Prof. E. A. Rice Given Degree: Professor Edwin A. Rice of the Arendtsville Vocational school has been notified by H. C. Petteiroil, director of agricultural extension in Pennsylvania, that he has had conferred upon him the honorary Keystone degree. This degree, which is given to a few outstanding leaders in vocational agricultural education each year, was conferred upon the Arendtsville teacher in recognition of his work at the school.

Today's Talk

A DEDICATED LIFE

To a greater or less degree each of us should live a dedicated life. We were not born merely to make ourselves happy and successful. We were put into the world to make others happy and successful. I like that thought as expressed by Michael Fairless in his beautiful brief book "The Roadmender." She said: "After all, what do we ask of life, here or indeed hereafter, but leave to serve, to live, to commune with our fellowmen and with ourselves; and from the lap of earth to look up into the face of God?"

Unfortunately this beautiful soul, who wrote under a man's name, died before her book was put into print. (Her real name was Margaret Fairless Barber.) Year by year, however, her fame grows and her beautiful thoughts have influenced an endless number of human beings. Certainly this gentle writer lived a dedicated life. Each one of us can do the same. Such a life affords the only happiness that is genuine and worth while. A commentator said this about Michael Fairless, she "gave to the world not only an immortal classic, but a whole philosophy of refined old." Michael Fairless was given her final resting place at her beloved Sussex. A simple wooden cross marks her grave. And the date, August 24th, 1901, are these words: "Lo! How I loved thee."

How precious are the words and deeds of a dedicated life! Its influence upon thousands of lives is endless. I am informed that over half a million of these small books — "The Roadmender" — have been sold. I have loved the book so much that I have collected every different issue and edition I could discover. The collection occupies an entire shelf in my library. God love Michael Fairless forever!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Miraculous"

FREEZING RAIN MAKES DRIVING VERY HAZARDOUS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Freezing rain and snow made driving hazardous on highways in western Pennsylvania Monday night and early Tuesday.

Numerous accidents were reported. The most serious occurred on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near Bedford when a Pittsburgh to New York Continental Trailways bus skidded into an abutment. Two passengers were killed and 17 other persons hurt.

Predicted snow and sleet failed to materialize in the Philadelphia area Monday night. The temperature was 35 above zero and skies were cloudy.

Two Tunnels Closed
The worst driving conditions were experienced Monday night in Butler, Westmoreland, Somerset, Cambria and Bedford counties. The Allegheny and Laurel Tunnels on the Turnpike were closed to traffic for brief periods several times so police could break up traffic jams, mostly caused by tractor-trailer rigs jack-knifing on grades.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Ellipt, Lawrence County, and West Manchester Twp., York County, today had State Sanitary Water Board permission to construct sewage improvements. Permits were issued yesterday.

Capital Stock: The stockholders of the First National Bank this morning voted unanimously for the proposed increase of the bank's capital stock from $150,000 to $200,000. "This was consistent with the principles of sound and conservative banking in view of the merging of the Citizens Trust Company with the First National Bank last March," Edmund W. Thomas, president of the bank, said.

MISS CHURCHILL IS ARRESTED ON DRUNK CHARGE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Sarah Churchill, red-haired daughter of the British statesman, is slated to be arraigned in Justice Court at Malibu Beach Thursday on a charge of being drunk in public view.

Miss Churchill, jailed five hours on Monday, has denied the charge, saying she intends to plead innocent.

Sheriff's deputies said they were called to the Malibu home of the 44-year-old actress on a complaint by the General Telephone Co. that she used profane and obscene language over the phone.

The company asserted the language was used in calls to several persons, including one with a phone company employee.

Resisted Arrest
The deputies said Miss Churchill greeted them with, "What the hell do you want?" and that they found kitchen curtains torn down, lipstick smeared on the refrigerator and contents of her purse scattered.

The officers said they took the daughter of Sir Winston Churchill to a substitution only after she had climbed into their car holding a glass of rum and resisted their efforts to get her out.

At a substitution, they related, it took two male officers and a matron to subdue her. One deputy's shirt was torn.

She was booked under the name of Sarah Beauchamp, which was the name of her late husband, society photographer Anthony Beauchamp. Friends said Miss Churchill had been emotionally upset since his suicide in London last August. The couple had been estranged.

CONDUCTOR AT MET COLLAPSES DURING OPERA

NEW YORK (AP)—Conductor Pietro Cimara collapsed and toppled from the podium before a capacity audience of more than 3,600 at the Metropolitan Opera Monday night. He was reported in critical condition Tuesday at St. Clare's Hospital.

The hospital said the 68-year-old Italian-born conductor had suffered a "cerebral (brain) accident." No further diagnosis was given.

Violinist Takes Charge
Cimara, who was conducting at the Metropolitan for the first time this season, was stricken just after the curtain rose on the second scene of the first act of Verdi's tragic opera "La Forza del destino."

Violinist Walter Hagen, 37, stepped up and took charge. He could not find the place in the score, so he conducted from memory. He kept the performance going without interruption. Others in the 92-member orchestra carried the stricken Cimara backstage.

Later Fritz Stiedry, a regular conductor at the Metropolitan arrived from his home in time to finish the performance.

SCOTT MAY RUN FOR GOVERNOR

HARRISBURG (AP)—U. S. Rep. Hugh D. Scott Jr., Philadelphia, said Tuesday he is "seriously considering" running for the Republican nomination for the U. S. Senate "if the nomination were to come to me under such circumstances as to leave me free of labels."

Scott, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, made the statement in an interview with the Harrisburg Patriot.

U. S. Rep. James E. Van Zandt of Altoona also has said he is willing to make the race for the seat now held by Republican Edward Martin, who is not seeking reelection. Likewise Weldon B. Heyburn, former auditor general and state treasurer, is seeking support among party leaders for the GOP nomination.

Scott said in the Patriot interview that "rule or ruin" factionalism lost the GOP the governor's office three years ago and that Republicans should face up to that because "this year's election 'will be a close one.'"

KILLS HIS YOUNG PREGNANT WIFE, THEN SUICIDES

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—A police hunt for a 28-year-old Philadelphia policeman who murdered his wife ended on Monday when he was found shot to death in his automobile near here.

Police said Richard P. Setzer took his life with his service revolver after slaying his wife, Theresa, 31, an expectant mother.

A farmer, Fred Miller, said he noticed a car parked in a wooded area not far from Riverton, Pa. Having heard a description of the auto in a broadcast, he ran to the Belvidere, N.J.-Riverton bridge over the Delaware River and notified police.

Heard A Shot
Miller said that as he left the area where he had seen the car he heard a shot.

When Pennsylvania state police arrived at the scene, they found Setzer's body in the front seat of his car with his .38 caliber police pistol beside him. One shot was fired from it.

The mutilated body of Mrs. Setzer was found on Monday morning on the living room floor by two of her husband's fellow policemen. The officers had gone to the Setzer home in Philadelphia's Port Richmond Section to find out why Setzer had failed to report for duty yesterday.

Find Five Notes
In the kitchen the two officers found five notes which indicated, detectives said, that Setzer had killed his wife as the climax of domestic troubles. The notes also hinted that Setzer intended to commit suicide, the detectives added.

The Setzers' two sons, Kenneth, 4, and Richard, 6, had been locked in the bedroom and were unable to answer the door when the two policemen knocked.

Philadelphia police said preliminary investigation indicates that Mrs. Setzer had been stabbed with a breadknife Sunday night.

'FAMILY COURTS' ARE PROPOSED

HARRISBURG (AP)—A proposal that the State Legislature establish "family courts" in the counties outside Allegheny and Philadelphia counties was forwarded Tuesday by a committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Assn.

Victor J. Roberts of Norristown, chairman of the association's Committee on Family Law, reported yesterday on a study of the problem of overlapping jurisdiction in the "family court" proposal.

The study was made by Prof. Henry H. Foster Jr. of the University of Pittsburgh. Roberts said, and he found that the State Constitution would permit the Legislature to establish such "family courts" in 65 of the state's 67 counties. Foster said there might be some doubt concerning Philadelphia and Allegheny counties because of the existence of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the County Court of Allegheny.

Roberts said a family court has long been needed in domestic relations procedure in Pennsylvania and suggested it could be set up as either a separate court or as a domestic relations division of the present common pleas court.

FOILED GUNMAN DECLARES HE IS ARMY OFFICER

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP)—A man who says he is a war hero is charged with burglary, assault with a deadly weapon and attempted robbery after a hold try to take the $40,000 receipts from the Crosby Golf Tournament.

He went into Municipal Court Tuesday for a preliminary hearing but the Monterey County sheriff's office said positive identification would have to wait two days for a fingerprint check.

The man says he is Lt. Col. Melvin Russell Blair, 42, who retired from the Army with a distinguished record.

Hurled Gun At Red
Blair, who had lived at Alexandria, Va., once threw a .45-caliber automatic pistol in the face of a Communist after running out of ammunition during a battle on Razorback Ridge in Korea.

Blair was wounded in World War II and twice in Korea. Pentagon records show he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross twice, the Silver Star, the Bronze Star three times, the Air Medal and three Purple Hearts.

Attempts to find Blair failed Monday night at Washington, D. C., Alexandria and in Kansas towns where he has lived.

The man who attempted the holdup used a gun to force Chester Gillette, treasurer of the Del Monte Properties Co., and his auditor, Frank Morton, to take him to Del Monte Lodge, where the tournament receipts were being guarded by Deputy Sheriff Tom Martin.

ACTRESS SAVES BABY IN BLAZE AT WAYNE HOME

By JAMES BACON

ENCINO, Calif. (AP)—Actor John Wayne's wife was burned on the arm but saved herself and her baby from further harm in a spectacular early morning fire at the $250,000 Wayne residence Tuesday.

Two servants and three dogs including a dachshund named Blackie—hero of the fire—escaped unhurt.

Wayne's brother, producer Fred Morrison, told a reporter that damage to the luxurious 14-room home might run close to half a million dollars, including gutting of the second floor, loss of valuable antiques and personal belongings and water damage to the ground floor.

Blackie Gives Alarm
Mrs. Wayne, the former Peruvian actress Pilar Palette, and her 20-month-old daughter, Aissa, took refuge in the house of the caretaker, Webb Overlander, where a doctor treated a burn on Mrs. Wayne's right arm and gave her sedatives for shock.

Mrs. Wayne said she was asleep, and the baby was in her crib in the same second-floor bedroom, when Blackie awakened her about 3:20 a.m. Mrs. Wayne saw her room afire.

She grabbed the baby and took her to safety on the ground floor. She said she then returned to the second floor, using a hand extinguisher in a futile effort to put out the fire. It was then her arm was burned.

Save Some Mementoes
Her maid, Consuelo Soldana, called the fire department. She and her sister, Angelica, escaped with the dogs.

Mrs. Overlander, rushing to the main house shortly after the fire broke out, said flames were shooting out all over the second floor. Among family members arriving were Mrs. Toni La Cava, Wayne's daughter by his first marriage, and her husband, Don La Cava. They live nearby.

Morrison said Wayne's collection of movie mementoes, in a den on the ground floor, was saved by firemen's salvage work.

Asst. Chief Harry Gross said the entire second floor of the house was ruined before the flames were controlled after about an hour.

Firemen said there was a fire in the fireplace of the bedroom where the blaze started but Mrs. Wayne said the fire appeared to have started with a burst, like a small explosion in a pile of phonograph records.

Minnesota Solon Dies Early Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. August H. Andresen of Minnesota died early Tuesday at the nearby Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital. He was 67.

A Republican, Andresen was first elected to Congress in 1924. He was a member of the House Agriculture Committee.

Andresen was admitted to the hospital Dec. 1 for treatment of an intestinal disorder. He apparently was making a good recovery but suffered a heart attack at 10:30 o'clock Monday night and died shortly after midnight.

Andresen's death was the second since Congress reconvened Jan. 7. Rep. Russell W. Keeney, Illinois Republican, died at the same hospital Saturday night.

The deaths make the present House lineup 231 Democrats, 198 Republicans and 6 vacancies.

YANK NEWSMEN ARE IN BUDAPEST

BUDAPEST (AP)—A party of 11 American newsmen and women arrived Tuesday for a three-day visit to Budapest—the first group of its kind since the anti-Russian revolt in 1956.

Most are publishers and heads of radio stations in Ohio, Pennsylvania and California.

Visits of any kind to Hungary were frowned on by the U. S. State Department after the revolt, and only a few Americans have come to Budapest. The fact that the department was willing to authorize this trip indicated another slight easing of the boycott against the regime of Communist Premier Janos Kadar.

Anti-Americanism Is Almost A Fad In SE Asia, But They Want Best U.S. Technical Experts

(Editor's Note—In parts of south-east Asia, anti-Americanism is almost a fad. But when it comes to foreign technicians, Asia most decidedly wants Americans—and in those crisis-ridden nations the U. S. Foreign aid experts are often America's best ambassadors.)

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst
A tall, blond man, very drunk, tore a Bangkok nightclub apart one evening. The press in Thailand's capital quickly identified him as a crazy American. He wasn't. He was a Dane.

But Americans get blame for practically everything in southeast Asia. Anti-Americanism is almost a fad.

However, there's another side to the picture. Take Indonesia, for example. In that Asian nation, threatened ominously by mounting Communist strength, American technicians are often the best ambassadors of the United States.

So says James Baird, chief of the International Cooperation Administration program for Indonesia. He adds that more American technicians are wanted in that sprawling, strategically important island nation.

More Specialists Planned
The ICA in Washington is planning an increase in "third country" specialists who would be hired by the United States to work with American experts. For example, West German doctors might be assigned to jobs in Iran, their salaries paid out of counterpart funds in local currencies. The ICA is also operating a third country program in Japan, helping Japanese train other nationals in various techniques.

But under-developed Asia seems to want mostly good Americans to help build its economies. It does not want nationals of a third country.

Asian leaders say Romanians, Russians and other Iron Curtain experts wait offshore, eager to show their technical assistance wares. They say any reduction in the number of American technicians would likely increase the number of Iron Curtain experts in Asia.

Results Of Assistance
How is the U.S. technical assistance program going in Asia? Here is a look at some of the results:

India: Some time ago Washington ordered a big cut in technical personnel for fiscal 1953. Sharp protests from the U.S. mission in India changed Washington's mind and the mission was maintained at its present strength of 230, a rise from 64 in 1952.

Indians say they want more Americans in such fields as education, agriculture, engineering and home economics. Most of it has been in farming, trying to put over modern methods.

"The number of U.S. technical personnel, as compared with the task facing our country, is infinitesimal," said an Indian plan commission spokesman. "Therefore, U.S. technicians have created no problems. There has been no criticism of the numbers, even in the left wing press."

Wants "Right Type" Americans
Indonesia: ICA Director Baird says the main problem is selection of the "right type" Americans, who work for the love of it and do not gripe about hardships. He admits they are a minority. But to his knowledge, he says, Indonesians do not resent the 160 U.S. technicians stationed among them. Government officials actually urged him to bring in more, to prevent vacancies being filled by Communist bloc personnel.

"Indonesia needs more American aid," Baird said, adding that projects now under way are being enthusiastically aided by local officials.

Thailand: Thomas Naughton, ICA program director, says he has the "absolute minimum" of Americans to do the assigned job, a long-range program. Officials say any personnel cut would cause irreparable harm. Thailand benefits from an annual $4½ million in U. S. economic aid.

Some Americans openly, if unconsciously, brandish their high living standards. But they are not representative of the 280 contract technicians helping the Siamese build roads and schools, train doctors, teachers and agriculturists. Many forsake the easy living of Bangkok to live in wooden village huts under trying conditions. Others work quietly and effectively in universities, hospitals and government offices, instilling technical know-how.

Indochina States: U. S. technical personnel in South Viet Nam number 150. Program directors would like 50 more to train Vietnamese. Currently 548 Vietnamese are training abroad at U. S. expense, but even when this is accomplished, the government feels American technicians will be indispensable. They don't want nationals of any other country. Officials say Americans have their "full sympathy and understanding."

In Laos, government sources say

TRUMAN TAKES STROLL AND CHATS AGAIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Truman proposed Tuesday that any summit meeting to ease world tensions be held in the United States.

He noted that three American presidents had made long trips to confer with heads of foreign states. "It's about time they came over here," Truman told newsmen during his morning stroll. "I told Stalin that if he wanted to see me any more he would have to come over here."

Approves Ike Letter
Truman apparently had in mind himself, President Eisenhower and Franklin D. Roosevelt as the American presidents who had made long trips to confer with foreign leaders. President Woodrow Wilson also made such a trip. Truman had a mixture of praise and criticism for President Eisenhower.

He termed the Eisenhower letter they are pleased with American technicians. A reduction would make it imperative to turn elsewhere. The government does not want to.

In Cambodia, U. S. aid, totaling more than 104 million dollars since mid-1955, is called indispensable to the nation's financial stability. Half the aid has been military. Americans assigned to technical projects included many who at first seemed indifferent, but today, says Director Alvin Rosenman, all are tackling the job with great enthusiasm.

S. Korea Understaffed
South Korea: This country as an annual billion-dollar U. S. aid program, of which 215 million dollars goes for economic help. Actually, the program is said to be understaffed. In technical assistance, 5.6 million dollars for fiscal 1958 went to a program concentrating on refugee resettlement, sanitation, health, irrigation and housing. It employs 30 Americans who, Korean officials say, are vital to effective operation of the program. Public sentiment is a mixture of appreciation and disappointment at the lack of immediately visible results.

Japan Not Underdeveloped
Japan: This is not an underdeveloped country. But a U. S. technical aid program, budgeted in 1957 at $1,890,000, operates a "third country program." A force of 16 Americans helps Japan train other nationals for aid programs. It's a small, efficient, unpublicized project. There are no problems over the presence of American technical personnel.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is an A-B-C on the thousands of words President Eisenhower and Russian Premier Bulganin wrote each other in the past month. Their subject: How to have a summit conference to talk peace and disarmament.

A conference still looks far off because they don't agree on how to have it.

Bulganin wants a meeting at the top, period. Eisenhower is cool towards it unless there is adequate preparation. For example: a meeting of foreign ministers.

Basic Stumbling Block
But this is a basic stumbling block to any agreement on disarmament. This country insists there must first be agreement on a foolproof inspection system to check cheating. The Russians agreed.

He wrote Eisenhower Jan. 10 and again Jan. 9. The second letter covered pretty much the same ground as the first, with a few additions. Eisenhower's letter, delivered to Moscow Jan. 12, was a reply to Bulganin's first letter.

Bulganin insisted Dec. 10: The United States, Britain and Russia should refrain from using ter to Soviet Premier Bulganin, proposing lower echelon meetings prior to any top-level talks, as "a perfect idea."

On Budget Matters
He said he hoped Eisenhower would take a strong approach with Congress on his new budget. "Last time he told Congress to take the budget and do what they pleased with it," Truman said. "A President must stand behind his budget. I hope he will take a strong approach with Congress this time."

He said Eisenhower was not a good budget-maker. "I haven't seen a budget yet that he is familiar with," he said.

Truman said he himself had not yet analyzed the budget but that he believed a tax increase would be necessary to meet the rising security costs.

FUTURE IS NOT GOOD FOR XMAS TREE BUSINESS

HARRISBURG (AP)—It could well be a gloomy 1958 Yule season for Pennsylvania's Christmas tree growers, economists warn. The reason: Too much of a good thing. Alvi O. Voigt, Penn State marketing expert, warned the commonwealth's tree producers that the state's Christmas tree production has grown to the point where surpluses threaten to wipe out profits.

Pennsylvania now has growing about 60 million Christmas trees. The annual average plantings for future harvest have jumped from 3½ million trees in 1946 to some 12 million at present.

"And there is nothing less wanted," warned Voigt, "than a Christmas tree on Dec. 26."

Sees Lower Prices
Still on the gloomy Christmas theme, J. B. Althouse, of the federal-state crop reporting service, predicted lower prices. That would go hand-in-hand with over production.

Althouse said about two thirds of the million Christmas trees sold by Pennsylvania producers during the 1957 season were purchased by citizens of the commonwealth. At the same time he noted that the most popular species of Christmas tree with Keystone States is the Scotch pine, which makes up about 76 per cent of sales.

However, the grand champion Christmas tree—first top winner

a frolic or jamboree than a serious meeting by suggesting that almost every European head of state take part, along with the leaders of India, Egypt, Afghanistan and Red China.

U. S. MUM ABOUT PLANE CRASH WITH A-CARGO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government would give no details today on its brief admission that at least one plane carrying a nuclear weapon crashed without exploding the weapon.

The Pentagon, apparently acting after consultation with other government agencies, refused to say where or when the accident occurred or to say whether more than one such incident might have occurred.

However, there was growing belief that the accident mentioned by the Air Force Monday occurred within the last year in the continental United States and involved a B47 medium bomber.

"No Comment"

Air Force spokesmen declined to answer a question about that possibility and had general "no comment" when asked about other accidents.

The pilot and copilot of a B29 which crashed and burned Aug. 5, 1950, in California confirmed that their craft was carrying the outer casing of an atomic bomb which did not explode. But they could not say whether the Air Force announcement referred to that crash.

The pilot, Lt. Col. E. Q. Steffes Jr., said in Washington, "There was no possibility of an atomic explosion and there was none. In

Use Same Greeting Card For 20 Years

WARWICK, R.I. (AP)—In 1939 Henri M. Morin sent his son Paul a card on his birthday with the notation that it be returned on the sender's birthday.

Paul sent it back to his father—and it continued going back and forth on their birthdays.

Nearly 20 years later, the card went this week from Paul to his father in St. Petersburg, Fla., to mark his 76th birthday. The card is so worn it is now held together with tape.

that form it (the bomb) was not capable of a nuclear explosion. It was just a certain quantity of TNT."

No Danger

The copilot was Capt. Carter W. Johnson, now at Ellsworth Air Force Base, Rapid City, S. D. Like Steffes, he said the weapon lacked the vital component to explode it. Johnson, now a B52 bomber pilot, said the explosion and fire which followed the plane crash stemmed from the fuel tanks.

"You can assure everybody that while the shape and weight of atomic bombs may be carried, there is no danger of a nuclear explosion because that hush-hush part is always missing on training flights," he said.

When you are frying scallops, drain them well before dipping in fine dry bread crumbs, then in slightly beaten egg mixed with a very little water and again in the crumbs.

JIMENEZ HOLDS DICTATOR POST DESPITE RIOTS

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—President Marcos Perez Jimenez appeared Tuesday to have skinned through another crisis as he revamped his Cabinet for the second time in four days. But more street violence indicated Venezuela's troubles were not over.

Perez Jimenez changed three more Cabinet posts in the wake of his ouster of Gen. Romulo Fernandez from the Defense Ministry.

Meanwhile, police and troops scattered antigovernment student demonstrators in downtown Caracas with machetes and tear gas. Demands for restoration of civil liberties increased.

The capital was under heavy guard. Police, troops, armored cars and tanks ringed the presidential palace. Inside the building soldiers patrolled the corridors with automatic rifles.

In the latest shakeup, Perez Jimenez switched Gen. Luis Felipe Llovera Paez from the Interior Ministry he took over last Friday back to his former post as communications minister. The interior job went to Antonio Perez Vivas, ex-governor of the Andean state of Tachira.

Gen. Nestor Prato was removed as education minister and given the key post of chief of the general staff. The education portfolio went to Dr. Humberto Fernandez Moran, director of the Venezuelan Neurological and Brain Research Institute.

Perez Jimenez took over the defense ministry himself from Fernandez, who was reported to have plotted the President's overthrow. The national radio announced tersely that Fernandez had left the country on an official mission.

The ousted minister arrived in the Dominican Republic. He said he was on an official mission to inspect arms and troops in the neighboring nation.

SEEK $500,000 FURMAN FUND

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Edward J. Kelsky, Pittsburgh businessman, said today he will confer soon with Clarence P. Bowers, Reading industrialist, about the financing of Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman's campaign for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Kelsky and Bowers have announced their support of Furman who announced his candidacy last week. Bowers said in a recent speech in Pittsburgh that he had campaign pledges of $500,000 for Furman.

Kelsky, in a statement, said: "I myself am sure I can raise $125,000 for Furman in this end of the state."

He said some $250,000 could be raised for Furman in Western Pennsylvania alone through campaign pledges secured by himself and Bowers.

Kelsky said he raised $96,000 for Gov. Leader's campaign four years ago.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Richard Zanuck, 23, son of producer Darryl Zanuck, is honeymooning in Mexico today with his bride Lili Gentile, 17-year-old actress. They were married yesterday at the First Methodist Church. Miss Gentile is a Southern beauty from Birmingham, Ala.

As late as last Saturday, not one of the 11 GOP members of the House Ways and Means Committee—including Kean, could be found who was willing to sponsor the administration trade bill. Trade and tariff legislation must originate in the House committee.

Kean, who now is expected to be a candidate for the New Jersey Republican senatorial nomination this year, had been represented as unwilling to take up cudgels for the program this year. Three years ago he was GOP sponsor of the last trade bill in Congress.

He announced he was glad to help push Eisenhower's mutual trade program through Congress this year in the interest of international security and the domestic economy.

"I believe that the urgent need to stimulate our own economy's growth and to wage total peace makes mutual trade legislation an absolute must," he said.

House GOP Leader Martin of Massachusetts told newsmen after a meeting of Republican policy leaders that "there will be a fight" over trade extension when a bill reaches the House floor.

He said the House floor.

Finger Revives Tiny Chihuahua

DALLAS (AP)—Fireman Ed T. Williams saved the life of a tiny Chihuahua dog by using one finger to apply artificial respiration.

The dog was found unconscious in the flaming home of its masters, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lindley.

"I held him in the palm of one hand," Williams said. "I turned him on his back and kept pressing on his chest with a finger and then releasing the pressure. At the same time, I held his mouth open and blew my breath into it."

After a minute or two, the tiny dog revived and scampered off.

HOUSE CLEARS WAY FOR ACTION ON USAF BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House made way today for quick consideration of a $548,226,000 emergency Air Force construction bill.

Backers predicted approval with little debate of the measure which, among other things, would authorize a start on construction of the country's third base for intercontinental ballistic missiles.

Various other missile projects, a defensive warning system against missiles, and dispersal of bomber bases also would be authorized under the measure, a part of the speeded-up defense plans developed to offset Russian missile progress.

Make Separate Probes

Both Senate and House committees, meanwhile, continued separate probes of the nation's overall defense status, and partisans in and out of Congress sought to assess political blame for the situation.

The bill before the House, taken up only eight days after Congress convened, was one of the most swiftly handled major bills in recent years. The Senate still must act. The measure is a preliminary to a $1,260,000,000 supplemental money bill which also must be passed by both houses to be effective.

Chairman Vinson of the House Armed Services Committee said the authorization measure, backed by President Eisenhower, is true emergency legislation for two reasons.

These, Vinson said in a statement for the House Rules Committee, are, "first, the items in the bill are in themselves of the highest priority, and in the second place, a prompt approval of this bill now will save up to one year on construction time."

Vinson explained that if the construction projects had to wait for consideration of the President's regular budget proposals, outdoor building weather this year might be past in some localities before the work could be well started.

Kelsky, in a statement, said: "I myself am sure I can raise $125,000 for Furman in this end of the state."

He said some $250,000 could be raised for Furman in Western Pennsylvania alone through campaign pledges secured by himself and Bowers.

He announced he was glad to help push Eisenhower's mutual trade program through Congress this year in the interest of international security and the domestic economy.

"I believe that the urgent need to stimulate our own economy's growth and to wage total peace makes mutual trade legislation an absolute must," he said.

House GOP Leader Martin of Massachusetts told newsmen after a meeting of Republican policy leaders that "there will be a fight" over trade extension when a bill reaches the House floor.

DEBRA PAGET WEDS SINGER

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Actress Debra Paget and singer David Street were married last night in a quiet home ceremony despite reports that his fourth wife—the one he married and divorced last month—might cause a ruckus.

Mrs. Maggie Griffin, mother of the shapely Debra, told a reporter that dancer Sharon Lee had called her several times yesterday threatening to disrupt the marriage.

"I wasn't the least bit nervous about losing a daughter," said Mrs. Griffin, "because I gained such a wonderful son-in-law. But I kept looking toward the door all during the ceremony for fear that Sharon would show up."

Miss Lee appeared on the Tom Duggan Show, a local TV program, on the eve of the wedding and declared that Street's love for Debra had broken up their 30-day Nevada marriage.

Both the shapely Debra, 24, and the 37-year-old singer said their friendship blossomed into love only last Saturday night while watching a late movie on TV. However, they have known each other since 1945.

JAYNE, MICKEY ON HONEYMOON

DALLAS (AP)—Jayne Mansfield, a bright-eyed actress who didn't let granddaddy's fortune keep her from dipping into Hollywood's golden coffers, flies out of her old home town today with her new husband.

Jayne and her Hungarian-born bridegroom Mickey Hargitay, 29, are off for a honeymoon at Miami after a hectic two days of wedding activities. The 24-year-old actress and her muscular bridegroom, a onetime "Mr. Universe," will open a night club engagement Feb. 7 in Las Vegas.

The gala wedding activities were climaxed with a reception for about 80 friends at the home of Jayne's mother and her stepfather Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Peers.

In an interview, her mother indicated Jayne has a few bucks stashed away in case her career ever shows signs of slowing. Mrs. Peers, the former Vera Jeffrey Palmer, said Jayne has received "over $100,000 from the estate of her grandfather." He was the late Elmer Palmer, who was in the state business in Pen Argyl, Pa.

"She'll receive more when she is 25 and when she is 30 and thereafter," said Mrs. Peers. She declined to name the exact amounts.

TEXAS HIT BY SMALL TWISTERS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A spreading storm brought continuing bad weather to the Northeast and another storm area—with a mass of arctic air—caused misery in the nation's mid-section today.

In Texas, a handful of small twisters were reported. Most were reported in the air, but one touched ground near Greenville and damaged two barns and two sheds. There were no injuries reported.

The storm moving off the New England coast caused widespread cloudiness and rain as far west as Ohio and parts of Kentucky. Snow flurries occurred through much of the New England states with rain and freezing rain over Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Arctic air, which brought a chill to the northern Plains yesterday, moved southward into the central Plains, reaching to the Oklahoma and Texas Panhandles.
